Western Seminary's presidential search committee and board of trustees are pleased to announce that Dr. Chuck Conniry has been unanimously selected as the next president of Western Seminary. "Dr. Conniry was chosen from among many highly qualified candidates and possesses the skills and experience to guide Western Seminary in our next season as a catalyst and resource for spiritual transformation." Said Mark Moosa, search committee chair.

"Throughout the 11-month international search process, the committee's priority was to find a qualified individual who demonstrates a humble dependency on our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, and is committed to protecting the doctrinal fidelity of Western Seminary and to gospel-centered transformation." Dr. Conniry's appointment as president took effect on February 1, 2021.

REBELLIOUS ROCK MUSICIAN TURNS TO GOD The journey to becoming president of an evangelical seminary is a testament to the transformative power of the gospel in Conniry's life. Raised in a loving Irish Catholic home in Southern California, he recalls his mother instilling in him an understanding of the bigness of God at an early age. But as a teen he rebelled against both God and his family, eventually turning to music, drugs, and parties for meaning. By the time he was 20, his life was spinning out of control. He was grappling with the drug-related deaths of two friends and realized that he was headed down that same road. But he knew he didn't have the solution for getting his life back on track. That's when a decision to take piano lessons reunited him with his childhood piano teacher, a meeting that would change his life forever. "I hadn't seen her in years, and right away I realized that there was something different about her," he recalls. "She proceeded to present the gospel to me in a way that I had never heard it before—that Jesus loves me and wants me to experience the fullness of his salvation and unconditional love." The piano teacher gave him a Bible, which she signed and dated. On his way home, Conniry realized how God had orchestrated the events of his life to bring him to that precise moment. He surrendered his life to Christ that day. As he began to read the Bible with a new understanding of the gospel, God kindled within him a desire for ministry. A few years later, he met and married his wife, Dianne, and they began serving in evangelistic ministry through their church where he served as associate pastor. He went on to earn his Master of Divinity at Bethel Seminary, and has been working in theological education for nearly three decades.
