BBC BIBLE BAPTIST CHURCH

Weekly Prayer Focus – April 19, 2020

Greg and Carolyn Gammon

Serving Translators in Asia

Home Based in Reno, Nevada

A recent story from the Yet translation team, a Bible translation project under Greg's responsibility:

“It was truly a holy moment.... Earlier today, 4 guys from the YET translation team and I were drafting a translation of Luke 22:24-46. When we got to verse 44, we started discussing why Jesus was in such agony. I said, ‘It wasn’t just because he knew he was about to physically suffer on a cross, but also because he was about to bare the sin of all people.’

Well, they took up the conversation from there. They said, ‘True! He wasn’t just bearing our sins, but everybody’s sin – from all over the world...from Africa, from America, from China, from Australia...everybody. And not just from people today! He bore the sins of all people from all time! Everybody’s sin!’

For several minutes they just kept processing and processing and processing that. And they kept repeating, ‘Everybody’s sin!’ And then it happened....A holy hush fell on the room. And for no less than 10 minutes, those 4 men sat in silence...weeping. A couple of them pulled their shirt up and covered their face and just wept. I sat there in complete awe at the response and began weeping too.

I wasn’t sure how or if we were going to move on, but after what seemed like a long, long time, they pulled their shirts down and wiped their eyes. One of the guys said, ‘Okay. Let’s translate it so other people can understand it too.’

God’s Word changes lives. May we keep reading His Word to us and allow Him to keep changing us to be more and more like Him. In Him, Greg (and Carolyn too!)”
